AGO OrganFest 2020: Beauty in the Midst of Chaos, to be held July 20-24, offers us the opportunity to listen to newly commissioned works, hear our Rising Stars, and reconnect with our colleagues.

Check out the AGO National website for more online learning opportunities! www.agohq.org

JoAnn McKelvey's daughter, Molly LeBlanc, has been sorting through years of collected organ and choral scores. She would be happy to dispose of these to interested musicians. There are a number of organ pieces and collections as well as many choral scores and other miscellaneous scores. You are welcome to leaf through to find some hidden gems that would be useful. Please contact Paul Monachino to connect with Molly.

JOB POSTINGS

First Presbyterian Church of Findlay, Ohio, is actively seeking to fill the position of Director of Music, by September 1st. FPC has a long history of wonderful music ministry and wants to continue that tradition in the midst of a changing world. Under our most recent director's leadership our music ministry has expanded beyond traditional chancel choir and bell choir to include a children's choir, a weeklong summer music and arts camp, hosting and facilitating 6 concerts of regional musicians and choirs, and increased ecumenical connection with other churches and the University of Findlay. The church is also amid a large renovation of our Aeolian Skinner organ to be finish by yearend. The Director of Music is to work with the Pastor and other worship leaders to create dynamic, traditional worship experiences on Sunday mornings and other Christian holidays throughout the year. This position is full time with benefits. Responsibilities include worship planning, playing organ weekly, directing choirs, oversight of the choral scholars program/summer internship program and summer music and arts camp. Please send resumes to info@findlayfpc.org.

CHURCH MUSICIAN:

St. John United Church of Christ in Defiance, Ohio, is seeking an organist/pianist. Year-round position beginning Sept., 2020. Primarily traditional sacred music. Regular duties include Sunday services, weekly choir rehearsals, occasional special services. Substitute organist available. High degree of musical competence required; degree in music preferred.

RELATED OPPORTUNITY:

St. John United Church of Christ would offer additional compensation for an organist/choir director. In addition to organist duties cited above, this position would include choral conducting experience and knowledge of choral music repertoire. Degree in music and experience in liturgical choir conducting preferred.

Send inquiries with vita to St. John UCC, 950 Webster, Defiance, OH 43512, 419-782-4176 or to fred.coulter@gmail.com. Phone contact: Dr. Sally Myers, 419-784-3608.
